SAMA TO OFFER VISIT TO PHILADELPHIA FLOWER SHOW

Altoona – The Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art at Altoona is planning a bus trip to visit the 2015 Philadelphia International Flower Show on March 4. Cost is $100 per person, with a $50 non-refundable deposit due with reservation. Space is limited. For reservations, call the Museum at (814) 946-4464.

The Philadelphia International Flower Show is considered the premier gardening event of its kind in the world in part because of the diversity of the plants. The 2015 show features the theme, “Celebrate the Movies.” Every guest will feel like a star and every garden a magical setting as the world’s great floral and landscape designers capture the beauty and spirit of the world’s great cinema. The red carpet will be rolled out as floral and garden designers use Disney and Disney-Pixar films as inspiration for their exhibits. Guests will experience the magic as they walk through floral displays highlighting their favorite movies, from “Cars” to “Frozen” and “Maleficent” to the new live-action film “Cinderella.”

Departure is scheduled for 6:45 a.m. on March 4 from the Lowe’s parking lot in Altoona. There will be a stop on the return trip at the King of Prussia Mall for guests to shop or have dinner. The bus is expected to return to Altoona at 10:30 p.m.

For more information on the trip, please call the Altoona Museum at (814) 946-4464 or visit www.sama-art.org.
